Newsletter of Coquille Martial Arts

February 2007

New Schedule Starts

January 29th

In Coquille Tots moves to 3 pm Tuesday and Thursday, and we will add a couple sections of Tai Chi. Shin Ken Ryu will no longer be taught on Saturdays.

In Bandon, both kids' classes will be taught from 4:00-5:00 with kids weapons to follow from 5:5:30 and beginning Tai Chi from 5:30 to 6pm.

European Sword

Seminar takes place February 10th, 1-2 and 2-3. You must have an approved practice sword in order to take this class. Woodenswords.com is the recommended vender for a good wooden "waster."

John Leaves for Canada

After the seminar we will be holding a party for John, who will be leaving us for Canada. Bring your favorite goodies to share as we wish him the best. There will always be a place for him here in our hearts and our dojo and we hope that his path will bring him back to us.

We will be continuing both the Tai chi and Shin ken ryu programs in his absence. For the advanced Tai Chi Program we will be teaching the broad sword and long sword forms after the spear form at 7:30 pm M & W.

Board Break Class

February 10th. Boards run 3.00 each of 3/8.00. And this is your chance to practice your test break or try your hand(foot) at other breaks as well.

Tournament

Dave's Tkd March 3rd, at Blanchett Catholic School in Salem. Pre-registration price is 40.00 + 5.00 for each additional division if post marked February 24th. Registration at the door is 45.00 + 10.00 and the family price is 45.00 for 2 or more in the same family, pre-registered.

Other tournaments up coming include Chip Wrights in Medford April 21st.

February Test

February 19th - 23rd. Those testing include Nicole Gibson, Bob Boden, Katlyn Davidson, Tyler Konomos, Maggie Muenchrath, Amy Muenchrath, Kai Griggs and Robin Ford. Test fees and dues must be paid current, and student must have a patch on their complete uniform in order to test.

We will be holding a belt rank ceremony immediately following the noon class, details to be announced. All winter certificates will be awarded at this time.
